Weather Related Closure Protocol

For some, the announcement of a "snow day" on a wintry morning is much appreciated as it means more sleep and a day off enjoying the winter wonderland. For others, the announcement of a snow day can create a hardship as it means trying to find daycare, or having to take off work, or possibly having to leave children home alone. The decision to call or not call school due to weather is not taken lightly considering the balance between safe travels to school and the difficulty an emergency closure creates.
