SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

- Good Stories to Share: Mr. Schroeder joined the preschool class for a fun-filled day after Miss Steph won a free day off in a raffle, enjoying pumpkin hammering and messy activities with the kids. RISE STUCO raised $1,127 in a Penny War to purchase Christmas gifts for families in the Kimberly Community. The Middle School staff also held an undercover dress-up week before Thanksgiving, bonding with students through creative and fun outfits that had the students guessing all week. After a wrestling match, Mr. Gonzales took the time to send a thoughtful handwritten note to a student, praising her effort, not just the outcome, which made a lasting impact. Meanwhile, a sweet moment between two brothers reminded us of the power of family love. Lastly, the KES Student Council brought holiday cheer to residents at Ashley Manor Memory Care Center, singing Christmas songs and creating cards, continuing a treasured tradition that brightened many lives.
- Ag Shop Expansion: Started this week. Foundation was laid and trenches were dug.
- Bus RFP: Due Date is January 6, 2025
- January Revise in leu of December Revise
- Board Work Session, ISBA Recap, Yearly Goals, etc.: Survey will be sent out to schedule.
- Day on the Hill: February 17-18, 2025
